

Why them?

They allocate a base living package for all in the universe, and have an integrity based lean foundation.

1. Housing (They have quite the structure built already, and is scalable).
  2. Education (Brilliant and Youtube?)
  3. Food (They can pick their sources)
  4. Social connections (They have strong enough network)

How:

1. Through Tesla
  - Payed with dogecoin

Partnering with:

2. Meta
3. CVS health
4. TechLEAD

Communication flows through:

5. Twitter and stellar

They handle the logistical numbers and make sure that people sign their folders.

Individuals are still free to choose how they allocate their own stipend (again, fairlawne can do the math).
